

Intern Grade Code 1554

Register of Medical Practitioners

On 16th March 2009, the Register of Medical Practitioners was established under section 43 of the Medical Practitioners Act 2007 and replaced the General Register of Medical Practitioners and the Register of Medical Specialists, which were established under the Medical Practitioners Act 1978. The Register comprises four Divisions. A medical practitioner can only be registered in one Division at a time, except for a specialist training in another specialty.

Internship registration is specifically for medical practitioners intending to practise in individually numbered, identifiable intern training posts, so that they may complete their internship training in Ireland and be awarded a Certificate of Experience

Essential professional requirement for appointment to the post of Intern

Each successful candidate for appointment must hold

Internship Registration in the Trainee Specialised Division of the Register of Medical Practitioners maintained by the Irish Medical Council no later than the first day of that appointment.
