Individual	07/08/2018	Can the National Ambulance Service answer the below questions. Across the NAS we have staff working in acting roles. Some for several years. My questions revolve around the acting officer positions we have in the Midwest but mainly in the Limerick city base. In Limerick we have several paramedic supervisors (Lemt) taken from their operational roles on frontline ambulances, some for more than 4 years. Can the NAS tell me in relation to Limerick positions When these acting positions were advertised How and where the positions were advertised What was the criteria and selection process used Were there interviews held for the positions and where Was there a panel formed How many panelled How long was the life of the panel What was the remuneration for the role Did the successful candidates enter into the officer pay grade structure for the role or did they stay on the paramedic supervisor pay structure. How many paramedic supervisors in Limerick have been taken off ICV or frontline ambulances to cover acting roles i.e.. ORM, Fleet and logistics etc. How many paramedic supervisors, including advanced paramedic supervisors have been taken off either icv and frontline ambulances and seconded to other areas or departments in Limerick . Also can you tell me if these staff remain on their paramedic supervisor pay structure or have they moved onto the officer pay structure? Have all these acting positions been given an RRV or ORV If the NAS have any staff ( within the last 10 years) in acting officer roles on diploma, degree or masters courses (nationally) where the cost of the course is being funded in total by the NAS . If yes how many, what is the name of the course and what is the cost of each course. Also what is the overall cost of the courses including the cost to the NAS to cover the staff in releasing them from their duties. How many times acting officer roles ( within the last 10 years) were attempted to be made full time through the process of ratification. Can this be broken down nationally to include the Midwest and Limerick. If any of these attempts of ratification were successful. Again can this be broken down nationally to include the Midwest and Limerick. How many staff are working in the role of acting paramedic supervisor ( including EOI or other). Can this be broken down nationally , the Midwest and Limerick In relation to the acting paramedic supervisor roles in Limerick How and where the position was advertised What was the criteria and selection process used Was there interviews held for the position Was there a panel formed How many panelled What was the life span of the panel What remuneration came with the role How many staff in the acting paramedic supervisor role (including EOI or other)) are not being paid. Again can this be broken down nationally, the Midwest and Limerick. If there are staff not being paid for the extra duties they perform ( in the acting paramedic supervisor role including EOI) , is this endorsed and supported by the NAS. How are they planning on making the upcoming ambulance officer competition fair and transparent to everyone that applies?
