50 bed St Conlon's Nursing Home in Nenagh

Dear Deputy Kelly,

The Health Service Executive has been requested to reply directly to you in the context of the above Parliamentary Question which you submitted to the Minister for Health for response.

The design team for the new 50 bed Community Nursing Unit (CNU) in Nenagh has completed the feasibility design and commenced the developed design of the facility. The planning and fire certificate applications are currently being prepared and it is anticipated these will be lodged by the end of Q2 2019.

Yours sincerely,

Jim Curran
