Dear Deputy Connolly

The Health Service Executive has been requested to reply to you directly in the context of the request for information referenced above, the following outlines the situation.

The Services Manager at University Hospital Galway has outlined that at present we have 2 vacancies in the Laundry department.

They are at a Laundry attendant grade.

These positions have been vacant for 2 months and 6 months. These vacancies are in the process of being filled at present.

I trust this clarifies the matter.

Yours sincerely
