PQ 40028/20.

To ask the Minister for Health the number of whole-time equivalent paramedic emergency medical technicians assigned to counties Roscommon and Galway; and the date staff were assigned.

Dear Deputy Kerrane,

The Health Service Executive has been requested to reply directly to you in the context of the above Parliamentary Questions, which you submitted to the Minister for Health for response.

Galway City whole-time equivalents posts increased by 15.2 in 2018 to a total of 39.8. For County Galway, the opening of the Tuam base in 2015 provided an additional 11.2 posts increasing the overall total to 59.16 posts. For County Roscommon, with the opening of the base in Loughglynn in 2018 providing 6 posts, the total number of posts increased to 48.2.

I trust this information is of assistance to and should you require additional information please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours sincerely,

Pauline McDonagh - Senior Executive Officer.
