Re: PQ 28678/20. To ask the Minister for Health the overall budget assigned to the running of officer response vehicles within the National Ambulance Service.

Dear Deputy Daly,

The Health Service Executive (HSE) has been requested to reply directly to you in the context of the above Parliamentary Question, which you submitted to the Minister for Health for a response.

The 2020 revenue budget for the cost centre of 'Vehicle Running Costs' is €9,674,969. This budget is assigned to cover all National Ambulance Service vehicles for maintenance, repairs and fuel costs. There is no separate budget allocation for Office Response Vehicles (ORVs) or any other type of vehicles.

I trust this information is of assistance to and should you require additional information please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours sincerely,

Pauline McDonagh,
Senior Executive Officer.
