Dear Deputy Cullinane,

The Health Service Executive has been requested to reply directly to you in the context of the above Parliamentary Question which you submitted to the Minister for Health for response.

At present there are 145 primary care centres open, with 4 more primary care centres opening by year end, see attached report with full listing.

There are 24 Primary Care Centres in construction which will open in 2022, see attached report. 80 Primary Care Centres are being planned for development, these centres will be open by 2026, see attached report with full listing.

The HSE are conducting a review of requirements for additional Primary Care Centre locations and following this review it is expected that these centres will be in place by 2030.

Yours sincerely,

Jim Curran
