Dear Deputy Cullinane,

The Health Service Executive has been requested to reply directly to you in the context of the above Parliamentary Question, which you submitted to the Minister for Health for response.

The tables attached detail the number of patients waiting in emergency departments for more than 24 hours broken down by day, hospital and by under 75 and over 75 years of age, respectively, in January 2022, in tabular form.

I hope this response is helpful.
