PQ 1597/22 * To ask the Minister for Health the number of vacant habitable dwelling units and vacant derelict residential dwelling units in the ownership of or in part ownership of or under the control of his Department and agencies under his remit; the county in which each unit is located; the length of time each unit has been vacant in tabular form; and if he will make a statement on the matter. -Cian O'Callaghan

Dear Deputy O'Callaghan,

The Health Service Executive has been requested to reply directly to you in the context of the above Parliamentary Question which you submitted to the Minister for Health for response.

The "Vacant Residential" buildings are listed on the first tab on the file. Any buildings that are recorded as "Vacant under Review" will be considered for reuse, for disposal or for retention.

The second tab includes buildings that are in the disposal process. This includes residential buildings on the market for sale.

The third tab lists the vacant residential buildings it has been decided to "Retain as Assets". This decision will be based on current or future healthcare service needs in the area, if it is a strategic location, its condition and suitability for future service provision, etc.

This residential properties are also recorded on the full vacant properties list provided to the separate PQ (PQ 63255-21)

Summary:

(Residential Properties only)

Vacant Under Review	47 Properties
In Disposal	12 Properties
Retained Asset	6 Properties

Yours sincerely,

Jim Curran
