PQ: 35354/22

To ask the Minister for Health if he will provide details of all Covid-19 assessments carried out by general practitioners by telephone in each of the years 2020, 2021 and up to May 2022, by month and by the number of general practitioners or practices who received amounts greater than €10,000; €20,000 and €50,000; €100,000; €250,000; and if he will make a statement on the matter. -David Cullinane

Dear Deputy Cullinane,

The Health Service Executive has been requested to reply directly to you in the context of the above Parliamentary Question (Reference 35354/22), which you submitted to the Minister for Health for response.

Details of payments to doctors for special items of service, including Covid payments, are available on our website:

<https://www.sspcrs.ie/portal/annual-reporting>

Under 'General Practitioner Reports' see 'Special Items of Service Reports' which can be searched by CHO or Nationally by month or year. PCRS does not collate data in relation to individual payments to GP's relating to Covid-19 assessments. The fee in relation to Covid telephone consultations is €30.

Yours sincerely,
