Dear Deputy Clarke

RE: PQ10892/22 - To ask the Minister for Health the amount of time that must pass before a healthcare professional is eligible to reapply for inclusion on the National Recruitment Service panel in cases in which they were removed from the panel during the recruitment process

Many thanks for your query in regard to the above.

The panel management rules for each National Recruitment Service panel are provided to candidates in the additional campaign documentation accompanying the advertised campaign. Candidates are removed from a panel when they accept a position offered, however are only removed permanently from that panel on acceptance of a permanent position. Candidates accepting temporary positions remain active on the panel in order to still be notified of permanent opportunities.

Once a candidate is permanently removed from a panel they must apply to any subsequently advertised recruitment campaign for that grade in order to be placed on the new panel created.

If you require any further information please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours sincerely

Eithne Fox
Assistant National Director of HR
