Re: PQ 54611-22 St. Vincent's University Hospital

Dear Deputy O'Callaghan,

I refer to the recent parliamentary question which has been referred for direct response.

I have had this matter examined and can advise that the current headcount for Physiotherapists in St. Vincent's University Hospital is 46 (whole time equivalent). There are 15 vacancies in the Physiotherapy Department at present, with ongoing efforts by our recruitment team to progress filling vacant posts.

I trust this information is helpful to you.

Yours sincerely

Michele Tait
