PQ Question: To ask the Minister for Health if there are financial supports available to assist former voluntary providers of mental health supports and counselling which continue to be contacted by people in need - Martin Browne

Dear Deputy Browne,

The Health Service Executive has been requested to reply directly to you in the context of the above Parliamentary Question, which you submitted to the Minister for Health for response. I have examined the matter and the following outlines the position.

There is no specific financial supports available for former voluntary providers of mental health supports.

I trust this information is of assistance to you.

Yours sincerely,

Tony Mc Cusker
General Manager
