Re: Parliamentary Question 7592/24 “To ask the Minister for Health if he will consider a haemodialysis unit for Our Lady’s Hospital Navan, given the most recent number of patients from Meath travelling outside the county for renal dialysis treatment as provided by the National Renal Office; and if he will make a statement on the matter.”

Dear Deputy Tóibín,

The RCSI Hospital Group has been requested to reply directly to you in the context of the above Parliamentary Question, which you submitted to the Minister for Health for response. Having reviewed the matter, the following outlines the position.

There are currently no plans for a Haemodialysis unit at Our Lady’s hospital Navan.

We trust this information is of assistance to you.

Yours sincerely,

June Molloy
Communications Manager
