Re: Parliamentary Question 29752/25 “To ask the Minister for Health when James Connolly Memorial Hospital will be used to give a dental service to those who need specialist care under general anaesthetic; and if she will make a statement on the matter”

Dear Deputy Stanley,

HSE Dublin and North East has been requested to reply directly to you in the context of the above Parliamentary Question, which you submitted to the Minister for Health for response. Having reviewed the matter, the following outlines the position.

Currently, Connolly Hospital delivers adult dental care to those with additional needs requiring a general anaesthetic.

I trust this information is of assistance to you.

Yours sincerely,

Stephanie Dunne
Communications and Public Affairs Manager
