

HSE National Clinical Programme for the Assessment and Management of patients who present to Emergency Department following Self Harm.

Twitter Policy: February 2020

These guidelines outline participation criteria for postings and published commentary on the National Clinical Programme for the Assessment and Management of Patients presenting to the Emergency Department following Self-Harm Twitter account.

What to Expect from @NCP_SH

The NCP_SH uses interactive online social media to share information with our followers. Our Twitter account is managed by authorised personnel assigned to the clinical programme.

When you follow @NCP_SH you can expect to see the following;

- Information about the National Clinical Programme, including events, reports and presentations.
- Re-tweets of interest, these will express an interest, not an endorsement.
- Programme and policy updates
- Factual information and detail about health policy in relation to self-harm and mental health.
- Interaction with affiliated accounts in HSE
- Up to date published research

Availability: This twitter account will not be monitored 24/7.

If you or someone you know is in crisis, or is at imminent risk of harm, firstly make sure there is someone with them to keep them safe, and then please contact your local GP who will advise you on the best course of action.