

	CROKE PARK Friday 7 th October 2022
08:30 - 08:55	Conference Registration & CPD Registration Tea/Coffee
	HSE National Clinical Programmes Conference Day
	Recovery, Resilience and Reform
	#3RsBetterHealthNCP2022
Co-Chairs: Pro	of Áine Carroll, School of Medicine, UCD and Dr Siobhán Kennelly, Consultant Geriatrician, Connolly Hospital/ CHO9 Plenary Session
	Hogan Suite: 08:55-11:00
08:55 - 09:10	Opening Address
	Dr Colm Henry, HSE Chief Clinical Officer
09.10 - 09.25	Impact of National Clinical Programmes and Sláintecare
	Mr Stephen Donnelly, TD, Minister for Health
09.25 - 09.40	National Clinical Programmes and Integrated Care: Role in Recovery, Resilience and Reform
	Dr Siobhán Ní Bhriain, HSE National Clinical Director for Integrated Care
09:45 - 10:00	Health and Wellbeing, climate change, recovery, resilience and reform
	Dr Philip Crowley, HSE National Director, Strategy & Research
10:00-10:15	CEO Vision: Recovery, Resilience and Reform
	Mr Stephen Mulvany, HSE Acting CEO
10:15-10:30	Collaboration in the design and implementation of services; MoC learning from the last 3 years to inform the direction of integrated operations working with NCPs
	Mr Damien McCallion, HSE Chief Operations Officer
10:30-11:00	PANEL DISCUSSION: 'What do we need to absorb, adapt and transform reflecting upon the last 3 years in the system to build lasting reform?'
	Dr Colm Henry, Mr Damien McCallion, Dr Siobhán Ní Bhriain and Dr Philip Crowley,
11:00-11:30	Tea/Coffee – POSTER VIEWING
Co-Chairs: Prof Ristéard Ó Laoide, HSE Director, National Cancer Control Programme and Dr Eimear Brannigan, HSE National Clinica
	Lead, Antimicrobial Resistance & Infection Control (AMRIC) Building Resilience and Shaping Reform
	Hogan Suite: 11:30-13:15
11:30-11:45	What do we mean by a resilient healthcare system? Prof Samuel Cromie, Director, Centre for Innovative Human System, TCD
11:45-12:00	Inter-professional education and training to build teams of the future (supporting resilience and reform) – what can we absorb, adapt and transform reflecting upon the last 3 years? Mr Pat Healy, HSE National Director, Clinical Programme Implementation & Professional Development
12:00-12:15	The Future of Data and Information Systems for Support Health Service Modelling to support recovery, resilience and reform – what can we absorb, adapt and transform reflecting upon the last 3 years? Dr Paul Kavanagh, National Health Intelligence Unit, HSE Strategy and Research איז
12:15-12:45	E-Health re-imagined (learning from the past 3 years) - what fundamentals need to remain and have provided the foundations for growth in our Healthcare System – what can we absorb, adapt and transform reflecting upon the last 3 years?
	Mr Fran Thompson, HSE Chief Information Officer and Prof Richard Greene, HSE Chief Clinical Information Officer
12:45-13:15	"Better Together": The Health Services Patient Engagement Roadmap
	Ms Jean Kelly, Clinical Lead and Operational Site Manager for the Vaccine Programme in CHO2 and Ms Irene
	Maguire, Senior Physiotherapist, HSE West
13:15-14:00	Lunch & Poster Viewing*Delegates should take note of what Parallel Session in the afternoon they are attending

	Parallel Session 1: Hogan Suite: 14:00-16:30
Nation	al Clinical Advisors and Group Leads/ National Clinical Programmes – Recovery, Resilience, Reform
Co-Chair	s: Dr Patricia Harrington, Head of HTA HIQA and Dr Máirín Ryan, Director of HTA & Deputy CEO HIQA
ACUTES	Emergency Medicine in Ireland During the COVID-19 Pandemic: Years Like No Other
14:00-14:20	Dr Gerry McCarthy, HSE National Clinical Lead, National Clinical Programme, Emergency Medicine and
	Consultant in Emergency Medicine, CUH and Dr Mike O'Connor, HSE National Clinical Advisor and Group Lead
	(NCAGL) Acute Operations
PMCD	National implementation of the Integrated Model of Care for the Prevention & Management of Chronic
14:20-14:26	Disease in the time of COVID-19
	Dr Sarah O Brien, SPHM and Deputy NCAGL Chronic Disease, HSE Office of the NCAGL for Chronic Disease
14:26-14:33	Chronic Disease Management in General Practice – Resilient through Covid and Reformed Practice Dr Suzanne Kelly, National ICGP Lead for NCP Diabetes
14:33-14:40	The Integrated Care Consultant: End-to-End Patient Centred Integrated Care Dr Stanley Miller, HSE National Clinical Lead, NCP Respiratory and Consultant Respiratory Physician
OLDER PERSONS
14:40-14:45	National Clinical Programme for Older Persons-Addressing Reform, Recovery and Resilience through integrated clinical design and mobilising adaptation of the older person service model Dr Emer Ahern, National Clinical Advisor and Group Lead, Older Persons
14:45-14:50	National Clinical Programme for Stroke
14.45-14.50	Ms. Sinead Coleman, Programme Manager, National Clinical Programme for Stroke
14:50-14:55	National Clinical Programme for Palliative Care Ms. Martina O'Reilly, Programme Manager, National Clinical Programme for Palliative Care and Senior PCOC Project Manager
14:55-15:00	National Clinical Programme for Rehabilitation Medicine
	Ms. Helen Kavanagh, Programme Manager, National Clinical Programme for Rehabilitation Medicine
15:00-15:15	COFFEE & COMFORT BREAK
MENTAL HEALTH
	Improving the Hospital ED and Primary Care Response to Self-Harm and Suicide-related ideation Professor Vincent Russell, National Clinical Lead, National Clinical Programme for Self-Harm and Suicide-related Ideation and Associate Professor, Department of Psychiatry, RCSI
15:15-15:21	Professor Vincent Russell, National Clinical Lead, National Clinical Programme for Self-Harm and Suicide-related
15:15-15:21	Professor Vincent Russell, National Clinical Lead, National Clinical Programme for Self-Harm and Suicide-related Ideation and Associate Professor, Department of Psychiatry, RCSI Are we there yet? Findings of a process evaluation of the implementation of the Early Intervention in
15:15-15:21	Professor Vincent Russell, National Clinical Lead, National Clinical Programme for Self-Harm and Suicide-related Ideation and Associate Professor, Department of Psychiatry, RCSI Are we there yet? Findings of a process evaluation of the implementation of the Early Intervention in Psychosis Model of Care
15:15-15:21	Professor Vincent Russell, National Clinical Lead, National Clinical Programme for Self-Harm and Suicide-related Ideation and Associate Professor, Department of Psychiatry, RCSI Are we there yet? Findings of a process evaluation of the implementation of the Early Intervention in Psychosis Model of Care Dr Karen O'Connor, Home Based Treatment Team & RISE and HSE National Clinical Lead, Early Intervention in
15:15-15:21 15:21-15:28	Professor Vincent Russell, National Clinical Lead, National Clinical Programme for Self-Harm and Suicide-related Ideation and Associate Professor, Department of Psychiatry, RCSI Are we there yet? Findings of a process evaluation of the implementation of the Early Intervention in Psychosis Model of Care
15:15-15:21 15:21-15:28 15:28-15:35	Professor Vincent Russell, National Clinical Lead, National Clinical Programme for Self-Harm and Suicide-related Ideation and Associate Professor, Department of Psychiatry, RCSI Are we there yet? Findings of a process evaluation of the implementation of the Early Intervention in Psychosis Model of Care Dr Karen O'Connor, Home Based Treatment Team & RISE and HSE National Clinical Lead, Early Intervention in Psychosis, South Lee Mental Health Services, Cork
15:15-15:21 15:21-15:28	 Professor Vincent Russell, National Clinical Lead, National Clinical Programme for Self-Harm and Suicide-related Ideation and Associate Professor, Department of Psychiatry, RCSI Are we there yet? Findings of a process evaluation of the implementation of the Early Intervention in Psychosis Model of Care Dr Karen O'Connor, Home Based Treatment Team & RISE and HSE National Clinical Lead, Early Intervention in Psychosis, South Lee Mental Health Services, Cork Specialist Perinatal Mental Health Services: Development in Ireland
15:15-15:21 15:21-15:28	Professor Vincent Russell, National Clinical Lead, National Clinical Programme for Self-Harm and Suicide-related Ideation and Associate Professor, Department of Psychiatry, RCSI Are we there yet? Findings of a process evaluation of the implementation of the Early Intervention in Psychosis Model of Care Dr Karen O'Connor, Home Based Treatment Team & RISE and HSE National Clinical Lead, Early Intervention in Psychosis, South Lee Mental Health Services, Cork Specialist Perinatal Mental Health Services: Development in Ireland Dr Margo Wrigley – HSE National Clinical Lead for National Specialist Perinatal Mental Health Programme and
15:15-15:21 15:21-15:28 15:28-15:35	Professor Vincent Russell, National Clinical Lead, National Clinical Programme for Self-Harm and Suicide-related Ideation and Associate Professor, Department of Psychiatry, RCSI Are we there yet? Findings of a process evaluation of the implementation of the Early Intervention in Psychosis Model of Care Dr Karen O'Connor, Home Based Treatment Team & RISE and HSE National Clinical Lead, Early Intervention in Psychosis, South Lee Mental Health Services, Cork Specialist Perinatal Mental Health Services: Development in Ireland Dr Margo Wrigley – HSE National Clinical Lead for National Specialist Perinatal Mental Health Programme and National Clinical Programme for Adult ADHD
15:15-15:21 15:21-15:28 15:28-15:35 PRIMARY CARE	Professor Vincent Russell, National Clinical Lead, National Clinical Programme for Self-Harm and Suicide-related Ideation and Associate Professor, Department of Psychiatry, RCSI Are we there yet? Findings of a process evaluation of the implementation of the Early Intervention in Psychosis Model of Care Dr Karen O'Connor, Home Based Treatment Team & RISE and HSE National Clinical Lead, Early Intervention in Psychosis, South Lee Mental Health Services; Cork Specialist Perinatal Mental Health Services: Development in Ireland Dr Margo Wrigley – HSE National Clinical Lead for National Specialist Perinatal Mental Health Programme and National Clinical Programme for Adult ADHD Developing and sustaining the clinical programme for disability in difficult times
15:15-15:21 15:21-15:28 15:28-15:35 PRIMARY CARE	Professor Vincent Russell, National Clinical Lead, National Clinical Programme for Self-Harm and Suicide-related Ideation and Associate Professor, Department of Psychiatry, RCSI Are we there yet? Findings of a process evaluation of the implementation of the Early Intervention in Psychosis Model of Care Dr Karen O'Connor, Home Based Treatment Team & RISE and HSE National Clinical Lead, Early Intervention in Psychosis, South Lee Mental Health Services: Development in Ireland Dr Margo Wrigley – HSE National Clinical Lead for National Specialist Perinatal Mental Health Programme and National Clinical Programme for Adult ADHD Developing and sustaining the clinical programme for disability in difficult times Prof Mac MacLachlan, HSE National Clinical Lead, NCP for People with Disabilities (NCP PD); Professor of
15:15-15:21 15:21-15:28 15:28-15:35 PRIMARY CARE	Professor Vincent Russell, National Clinical Lead, National Clinical Programme for Self-Harm and Suicide-related Ideation and Associate Professor, Department of Psychiatry, RCSI Are we there yet? Findings of a process evaluation of the implementation of the Early Intervention in Psychosis Model of Care Dr Karen O'Connor, Home Based Treatment Team & RISE and HSE National Clinical Lead, Early Intervention in Psychosis, South Lee Mental Health Services: Development in Ireland Dr Margo Wrigley – HSE National Clinical Lead for National Specialist Perinatal Mental Health Programme and National Clinical Programme for Adult ADHD Developing and sustaining the clinical programme for disability in difficult times Prof Mac MacLachlan, HSE National Clinical Lead, NCP for People with Disabilities (NCP PD); Professor of Psychology & Social Inclusion and Co-Director, ALL (Assisting Living & Learning) Institute, Maynooth University
15:15-15:21 15:21-15:28 15:28-15:35 PRIMARY CARE 15:35-15:55	Professor Vincent Russell, National Clinical Lead, National Clinical Programme for Self-Harm and Suicide-related Ideation and Associate Professor, Department of Psychiatry, RCSI Are we there yet? Findings of a process evaluation of the implementation of the Early Intervention in Psychosis Model of Care Dr Karen O'Connor, Home Based Treatment Team & RISE and HSE National Clinical Lead, Early Intervention in Psychosis, South Lee Mental Health Services; Cork Specialist Perinatal Mental Health Services: Development in Ireland Dr Margo Wrigley – HSE National Clinical Lead for National Specialist Perinatal Mental Health Programme and National Clinical Programme for Adult ADHD Developing and sustaining the clinical programme for disability in difficult times Prof Mac MacLachlan, HSE National Clinical Lead, NCP for People with Disabilities (NCP PD); Professor of Psychology & Social Inclusion and Co-Director, ALL (Assisting Living & Learning) Institute, Maynooth University and Research & Innovation Coordinator for World Health Organisation's, GATE Programme
15:15-15:21 15:21-15:28 15:28-15:35 PRIMARY CARE 15:35-15:55 CYP	Professor Vincent Russell, National Clinical Lead, National Clinical Programme for Self-Harm and Suicide-related Ideation and Associate Professor, Department of Psychiatry, RCSI Are we there yet? Findings of a process evaluation of the implementation of the Early Intervention in Psychosis Model of Care Dr Karen O'Connor, Home Based Treatment Team & RISE and HSE National Clinical Lead, Early Intervention in Psychosis, South Lee Mental Health Services; Cork Specialist Perinatal Mental Health Services: Development in Ireland Dr Margo Wrigley – HSE National Clinical Lead for National Specialist Perinatal Mental Health Programme and National Clinical Programme for Adult ADHD Developing and sustaining the clinical programme for disability in difficult times Prof Mac MacLachlan, HSE National Clinical Lead, NCP for People with Disabilities (NCP PD); Professor of Psychology & Social Inclusion and Co-Director, ALL (Assisting Living & Learning) Institute, Maynooth University and Research & Innovation Coordinator for World Health Organisation's, GATE Programme 'Goldilocks and the 3Rs, getting health services 'just right' for Children and Young People'
15:15-15:21 15:21-15:28 15:28-15:35 PRIMARY CARE 15:35-15:55 CYP	Professor Vincent Russell, National Clinical Lead, National Clinical Programme for Self-Harm and Suicide-related Ideation and Associate Professor, Department of Psychiatry, RCSI Are we there yet? Findings of a process evaluation of the implementation of the Early Intervention in Psychosis Model of Care Dr Karen O'Connor, Home Based Treatment Team & RISE and HSE National Clinical Lead, Early Intervention in Psychosis, South Lee Mental Health Services: Development in Ireland Dr Margo Wrigley – HSE National Clinical Lead for National Specialist Perinatal Mental Health Programme and National Clinical Programme for Adult ADHD Developing and sustaining the clinical programme for disability in difficult times Prof Mac MacLachlan, HSE National Clinical Lead, NCP for People with Disabilities (NCP PD); Professor of Psychology & Social Inclusion and Co-Director, ALL (Assisting Living & Learning) Institute, Maynooth University and Research & Innovation Coordinator for World Health Organisation's, GATE Programme
15:15-15:21 15:21-15:28 15:28-15:35 PRIMARY CARE 15:35-15:55 CYP	Professor Vincent Russell, National Clinical Lead, National Clinical Programme for Self-Harm and Suicide-related Ideation and Associate Professor, Department of Psychiatry, RCSI Are we there yet? Findings of a process evaluation of the implementation of the Early Intervention in Psychosis Model of Care Dr Karen O'Connor, Home Based Treatment Team & RISE and HSE National Clinical Lead, Early Intervention in Psychosis, South Lee Mental Health Services, Cork Specialist Perinatal Mental Health Services: Development in Ireland Dr Margo Wrigley – HSE National Clinical Lead for National Specialist Perinatal Mental Health Programme and National Clinical Programme for Adult ADHD Developing and sustaining the clinical programme for disability in difficult times Prof Mac MacLachlan, HSE National Clinical Lead, NCP for People with Disabilities (NCP PD); Professor of Psychology & Social Inclusion and Co-Director, ALL (Assisting Living & Learning) Institute, Maynooth University and Research & Innovation Coordinator for World Health Organisation's, GATE Programme 'Goldilocks and the 3Rs, getting health services 'just right' for Children and Young People' Dr Ciara Martin, National Clinical Advisor and Group Lead, Children and Young People, Consultant in Paediatric
15:15-15:21 15:21-15:28 15:28-15:35 PRIMARY CARE 15:35-15:55 CYP	 Professor Vincent Russell, National Clinical Lead, National Clinical Programme for Self-Harm and Suicide-related Ideation and Associate Professor, Department of Psychiatry, RCSI Are we there yet? Findings of a process evaluation of the implementation of the Early Intervention in Psychosis Model of Care Dr Karen O'Connor, Home Based Treatment Team & RISE and HSE National Clinical Lead, Early Intervention in Psychosis, South Lee Mental Health Services; Cork Specialist Perinatal Mental Health Services: Development in Ireland Dr Margo Wrigley – HSE National Clinical Lead for National Specialist Perinatal Mental Health Programme and National Clinical Programme for Adult ADHD Developing and sustaining the clinical programme for disability in difficult times Prof Mac MacLachlan, HSE National Clinical Lead, NCP for People with Disabilities (NCP PD); Professor of Psychology & Social Inclusion and Co-Director, ALL (Assisting Living & Learning) Institute, Maynooth University and Research & Innovation Coordinator for World Health Organisation's, GATE Programme 'Goldilocks and the 3Rs, getting health services 'just right' for Children and Young People' Dr Ciara Martin, National Clinical Advisor and Group Lead, Children and Young People, Consultant in Paediatric Emergency Medicine and Professor Ellen Crushell, HSE National Clinical Co-Lead, NCP Paediatrics and
15:15-15:21 15:21-15:28 15:28-15:35 PRIMARY CARE 15:35-15:55 CYP	Professor Vincent Russell, National Clinical Lead, National Clinical Programme for Self-Harm and Suicide-related Ideation and Associate Professor, Department of Psychiatry, RCSI Are we there yet? Findings of a process evaluation of the implementation of the Early Intervention in Psychosis Model of Care Dr Karen O'Connor, Home Based Treatment Team & RISE and HSE National Clinical Lead, Early Intervention in Psychosis, South Lee Mental Health Services, Cork Specialist Perinatal Mental Health Services: Development in Ireland Dr Margo Wrigley – HSE National Clinical Lead for National Specialist Perinatal Mental Health Programme and National Clinical Programme for Adult ADHD Developing and sustaining the clinical programme for disability in difficult times Prof Mac MacLachlan, HSE National Clinical Lead, NCP for People with Disabilities (NCP PD); Professor of Psychology & Social Inclusion and Co-Director, ALL (Assisting Living & Learning) Institute, Maynooth University and Research & Innovation Coordinator for World Health Organisation's, GATE Programme 'Goldilocks and the 3Rs, getting health services 'just right' for Children and Young People' Dr Ciara Martin, National Clinical Advisor and Group Lead, Children and Young People, Consultant in Paediatric Emergency Medicine and Professor Ellen Crushell, HSE National Clinical Co-Lead, NCP Paediatrics and Neonatology Q&A: 16:15-16:30
15:15-15:21 15:21-15:28 15:28-15:35 PRIMARY CARE 15:35-15:55 CYP	Professor Vincent Russell, National Clinical Lead, National Clinical Programme for Self-Harm and Suicide-related Ideation and Associate Professor, Department of Psychiatry, RCSI Are we there yet? Findings of a process evaluation of the implementation of the Early Intervention in Psychosis Model of Care Dr Karen O'Connor, Home Based Treatment Team & RISE and HSE National Clinical Lead, Early Intervention in Psychosis, South Lee Mental Health Services, Cork Specialist Perinatal Mental Health Services: Development in Ireland Dr Margo Wrigley – HSE National Clinical Lead for National Specialist Perinatal Mental Health Programme and National Clinical Programme for Adult ADHD Developing and sustaining the clinical programme for disability in difficult times Prof Mac MacLachlan, HSE National Clinical Lead, NCP for People with Disabilities (NCP PD); Professor of Psychology & Social Inclusion and Co-Director, ALL (Assisting Living & Learning) Institute, Maynooth University and Research & Innovation Coordinator for World Health Organisation's, GATE Programme 'Goldilocks and the 3Rs, getting health services 'just right' for Children and Young People' Dr Ciara Martin, National Clinical Advisor and Group Lead, Children and Young People, Consultant in Paediatric Emergency Medicine and Professor Ellen Crushell, HSE National Clinical Co-Lead, NCP Paediatrics and Neonatology Q&A: 16:15-16:30
15:15-15:21 15:21-15:28 15:28-15:35 PRIMARY CARE 15:35-15:55 CYP 15:55-16:15	Professor Vincent Russell, National Clinical Lead, National Clinical Programme for Self-Harm and Suicide-related Ideation and Associate Professor, Department of Psychiatry, RCSI Are we there yet? Findings of a process evaluation of the implementation of the Early Intervention in Psychosis Model of Care Dr Karen O'Connor, Home Based Treatment Team & RISE and HSE National Clinical Lead, Early Intervention in Psychosis, South Lee Mental Health Services; Development in Ireland Dr Margo Wrigley – HSE National Clinical Lead for National Specialist Perinatal Mental Health Programme and National Clinical Programme for Adult ADHD Developing and sustaining the clinical programme for disability in difficult times Prof Mac MacLachlan, HSE National Clinical Lead, NCP for People with Disabilities (NCP PD); Professor of Psychology & Social Inclusion and Co-Director, ALL (Assisting Living & Learning) Institute, Maynooth University and Research & Innovation Coordinator for World Health Organisation's, GATE Programme 'Goldilocks and the 3Rs, getting health services 'just right' for Children and Young People' Dr Ciara Martin, National Clinical Advisor and Group Lead, Children and Young People, Consultant in Paediatric Emergency Medicine and Professor Ellen Crushell, HSE National Clinical Co-Lead, NCP Paediatrics and Neonatology Q&A: 16:15-16:30 Parallel Session 2: All Star Suite 681: 14:00-16:30 Innovation to Support Recovery, Resilience and Reform
15:15-15:21 15:21-15:28 15:28-15:35 PRIMARY CARE 15:35-15:55 CYP 15:55-16:15 CO-Chairs: T	Professor Vincent Russell, National Clinical Lead, National Clinical Programme for Self-Harm and Suicide-related Ideation and Associate Professor, Department of Psychiatry, RCSI Are we there yet? Findings of a process evaluation of the implementation of the Early Intervention in Psychosis Model of Care Dr Karen O'Connor, Home Based Treatment Team & RISE and HSE National Clinical Lead, Early Intervention in Psychosis, South Lee Mental Health Services, Cork Specialist Perinatal Mental Health Services: Development in Ireland Dr Margo Wrigley – HSE National Clinical Lead for National Specialist Perinatal Mental Health Programme and National Clinical Programme for Adult ADHD Developing and sustaining the clinical programme for disability in difficult times Prof Mac MacLachlan, HSE National Clinical Lead, NCP for People with Disabilities (NCP PD); Professor of Psychology & Social Inclusion and Co-Director, ALL (Assisting Living & Learning) Institute, Maynooth University and Research & Innovation Coordinator for World Health Organisation's, GATE Programme 'Goldilocks and the 3Rs, getting health services 'just right' for Children and Young People.' Dr Ciara Martin, National Clinical Advisor and Group Lead, Children and Young People, Consultant in Paediatric Emergency Medicine and Professor Ellen Crushell, HSE National Clinical Co-Lead, NCP Paediatrics and Neonatology Q&A: 16:15-16:30 Innovation to Support Recovery, Resilience and Reform im Carey, AND, HSE Clinical Design & Innovation and Anne Horgan, GM, HSE Clinical Design & Innovation
15:15-15:21 15:21-15:28 15:28-15:35 PRIMARY CARE 15:35-15:55 CYP 15:55-16:15	Professor Vincent Russell, National Clinical Lead, National Clinical Programme for Self-Harm and Suicide-related Ideation and Associate Professor, Department of Psychiatry, RCSI Are we there yet? Findings of a process evaluation of the implementation of the Early Intervention in Psychosis Model of Care Dr Karen O'Connor, Home Based Treatment Team & RISE and HSE National Clinical Lead, Early Intervention in Psychosis, South Lee Mental Health Services, Cork Specialist Perinatal Mental Health Services: Development in Ireland Dr Margo Wrigley – HSE National Clinical Lead for National Specialist Perinatal Mental Health Programme and National Clinical Programme for Adult ADHD Developing and sustaining the clinical programme for disability in difficult times Prof Mac MacLachlan, HSE National Clinical Lead, NCP for People with Disabilities (NCP PD); Professor of Psychology & Social Inclusion and Co-Director, ALL (Assisting Living & Learning) Institute, Maynooth University and Research & Innovation Coordinator for World Health Organisation's, GATE Programme 'Goldilocks and the 3Rs, getting health services 'just right' for Children and Young People' Dr Ciara Martin, National Clinical Advisor and Group Lead, Children and Young People, Consultant in Paediatric Emergency Medicine and Professor Ellen Crushell, HSE National Clinical Co-Lead, NCP Paediatrics and Neonatology Q&A: 16:15-16:30 Parallel Session 2: All Star Suite 681: 14:00-16:30 Innovation to Support Recovery, Resilience and Reform

HSCP	HSE National Health and Social Care Professions Office: Clinical Programme Implementation and Professional
14:20-14:40	Development Sinead Fitzpatrick, Development Manager, HSE National Health and Social Care Professions (HSCP) Office
NQPS	HSE National Quality and Patient Safety Directorate: How we work with you for patient safety
14:40-15:00	Ms Lorraine Schwanberg, HSE Assistant National Director, Quality and Patient Safety, Incident Management
15:00-15:15	COFFEE & COMFORT BREAK
Public Health	National Genetics and Genomics Strategy
Strategic	Dr Colm Henry, HSE Chief Clinical Officer and Dr Caitríona McCarthy, Consultant in Public Health Medicine,
Programme 15:15-15:40	National Cancer Control Programme
NWIHP	Collaboration is Key to Effectiveness
15:40-16:00	Dr Cliona Murphy, Consultant Obstetrician & Gynaecologist, Coombe Women
Long-COVID	Resilience and Recovery of Infectious Diseases post pandemic
Interim MOC	Prof Catherine Fleming, National Clinical Co-Lead, NCP Infectious Disease, Consultant in Infectious Diseases,
16:00-16:20	UHG
	Q&A: 16:20-16:30
	Parallel Session 3: All Star Suite 682: 14:00-16:30
	Sláintecare Integration Fund Projects and Operational Excellence
Co-Chai	rs: Muriel Farrell and Dr Gráinne Healy Sláintecare Programme Management Office, Department of Health
Remote Nurse	SMILE: Supporting Multi-morbidity self-care through Integration, Learning and eHealth
Triage	Mary Burke, Assistant Clinical General Manager, Caredoc (Carlow Emergency Doctors on Call)
14:00-14:17
Social Prescribin
14:17-14:34	Dr Aisling Sheehan, National Lead HSE Alcohol, Mental Health and Wellbeing Programmes, HSE Health and Wellbeing, Strategy and Research and Rita Bevan, Regional Social Prescribing Coordinator Cork and Kerry, National FRC Mental Health Promotion Project, Family Resource Centre National Forum
	National The Mental Health Fromotion Froject, Family Resource centre National Forum
Headache/	Integrated Care Pathway for the Management of Headache/ Migraine
Migraine	Helen Cahill, National Project Manager, Headache
14:34-14:51	Heart Failure Virtual Consultation Service
Heart Failure 14:51-15:08	Dr Joe Gallagher, ICGP HSE Integrated Care Lead (Cardiovascular Disease)
	COFFEE & COMFORT BREAK
15:08-15:23
Chronic Disease Management	'Living Well' A self-management programme for adults with chronic conditions - Recovery, Resilience, Reform
15:23-15:40	Derval Howley HSE Community Healthcare South East Lead Healthy Eating and Active Living (HEAL) Programme
ED Avoidance	National Ambulance Service & Requires Hernital Dathfinder Alternative Seve Dathway Driveing seve to the
ED Avoidance 15:40-15:57	National Ambulance Service & Beaumont Hospital Pathfinder Alternative Care Pathway: Bringing care to the patient after a 999/112 call: The Patient and Family Experience
_00 _0.0/	Paul Bernard, Clinical Specialist Occupational Therapist, Beaumont Hospital and Lawrence Kenna, Ambulance
	Officer, National Ambulance Service
Hospital	Accelerating Integrated Care for Older People in the West
Admissions Avoidance	Dr Michelle Canavan, Consultant Geriatrician GUH and HSE CHW ICPOP
15:57-16:15
	Q&A: 16:15-16:30
16:30-16:35	Closing Session: Hogan Suite: 16:30-16:50 Poster Winner Prize giving
10.30-10.33	ruster winner frize giving
16:35-16:50	Closing Remarks
	Dr Colm Henry, HSE Chief Clinical Officer and Dr Siobhán Ní Bhriain, HSE National Clinical Director for Integrated Care
16:50	Close of Conference