HE

An Stiúrthóireacht um Ardchaighdeáin agus Sábháilteacht Othar <sup>Oifig an Phríomhoifigigh Cliniciúil</sup> National Quality and Patient Safety Directorate Office of the Chief Clinical Officer

Q- COMMUNITY MEMBERS OF IRELAND TEA TIME CATCH-UP

20TH JULY2022 : CO-HOST VALERIE TWOMEY

UPCOMING Q EVENTS

- Action learning and collaboration around network weaving
  - 17 Aug: 16:30- 17:30
- Next session of Liberating Structures
  08 Sept: 12:00-13:00
- New to Q webinar
  15 Sept: 12:00 13:00
- Q's annual community event • 18 October 2022

*Click text

to access

• Catch-up on past events!

WELCOME

PAPERS & PODCASTS

"The power of reflective practice in staff recovery and wellbeing"

• Blog by Margaret Codd

• Q's toolkit of 25 tried-and-tested methods for creative collaboration and problem-solving

Journals and Learning Resources

 To help develop improvement knowledge and skills, Q provides members with free access to a range of online resources, including the opportunity to publish your work

Surgical safety checklist audits may be misleading! Improving the implementation and adherence of the surgical safety checklist: a quality improvement project

Build your connections on the QPS Ireland Network Map HERE!

*Click text to access

We are delighted to welcome 3 new Qmembers! Welcome to the Community!

- Eugenie Donnelly
  OPS Manager: Ireland East Hospital Group
- Eithne Mullen- @eithnemullen
  Transformation Lead: Ireland East Hospital Group
- Amy Carroll- ehappymadwifemum
  Nursing/Midwifery Innovation Fellow: HSE Spark Innovation Programme

TIME TO SHARE!

Rob Cunney shared learning from discussion with human factors experts in relation to the surgical safety checklist, and how this overlaps with concepts from Learning from Excellence and Safety II. Here's Rob's whiteboard sketch summarising the discussion:

