Restorative Just Culture with Prof. Joe Rafferty & Amanda Oates

GUEST SPEAKERS

Professor Joe Rafferty, was appointed Chief Executive of Mersey Care NHS Foundation Trust in September 2012. The trust is now one of the largest specialised integrated care providers in the NHS and includes inpatient and community mental health, community physical health, and learning disability and addictions services. For the past five years, he has been named as one of the top 50 NHS Chief Executive's by the Health Service Journal (HSJ) and has appeared in the HSJ100 most influential people in healthcare in the UK. He is a founder member of the Zero Suicide Alliance UK and was named a Commander of the Order of the British Empire (CBE) in the New Year's Honours List 2020 for his work on suicide prevention

Amanda Oates, is one of the pioneering NHS Directors of Human Resources and Organisational Development in the North West. Her extensive experience includes Director level posts in a number of NHS trusts and she has operated at the most senior board levels since 2008. Since joining Mersey Care NHS FT she has transformed the way that the trust delivers its workforce function, and has received external endorsement from the highest levels in her profession most recently leading her team to win the Organisational Development Team of the year in 2019

CO-HOST

Dr. John Fitzsimons, Clinical Director with the National Quality and Patient Safety Directorate and Consultant Paediatrician at Children's Health Ireland at Temple Street
