A conversation with Dr Amar Shah

Tuesday 21st September, 2021 13:00 to 14:00

To Register: <https://bit.ly/3DxARow> (you will receive a confirmation email with instructions)

Whole systems approach to Quality Improvement

Reasons to join us to:

- ✦ Hear from a national clinical Quality Improvement (QI) leader
- ✦ Learn about an organisation that put QI at the core of its mission
- ✦ Gather ideas about how to involve everyone in QI
- ✦ Hear about and put yourself on “Q Ireland Network Map”

Speaker

Dr Amar Shah is a Consultant forensic psychiatrist & Chief Quality Officer at East London NHS Foundation Trust (ELFT). He leads at executive and Board level at ELFT on quality, performance, strategy, planning and business intelligence. He is the national improvement lead for mental health at the Royal College of Psychiatrists, leading a number of large-scale improvement collaboratives on the topics of suicide prevention, restrictive practice and sexual safety. Amar is also chair of the quality improvement faculty at the Royal College of Psychiatrists.

Amar is an improvement advisor and faculty member for the Institute for Healthcare Improvement, teaching and guiding improvers and healthcare systems across the world. He is an honorary visiting professor at the University of Leicester. He has completed an executive MBA in Healthcare Management, a Masters in Mental Health Law and a Postgraduate Certificate in Medical Education. Amar is a regular national and international keynote speaker at healthcare improvement conferences and has published over 40 peer-review articles in the field of quality management.

Dr Amar Shah will be joined by Dr John Fitzsimons Consultant Paediatrician at Temple Street Childrens Hospital and Clinical Director with the Quality and Patient Safety Directorate.

We will also launch the “Q Ireland Network Map” which aims to visualise and build the connections of those who are involved in healthcare quality improvement in Ireland. Assisting people in making meaningful QI connections and collaborating with others across the network.
