

Memory Technology Resource Room

Helping you live well at home with dementia and memory loss

Local free service

Occupational Therapist led service for people with dementia and other memory issues

Demonstration and advice on a wide range of assistive technologies

Practical strategies and solutions to support independent daily living

Helping you to stay engaged in your community

Providing information to Healthcare Professionals

www.understandtogether.ie

National Dementia
Office

