

National Immunisation Study Day, Dublin
September 12th 2014 Dr Steevens Hospital
NMBI Approved

This full day programme is for all new Nurses involved in immunisation. The half day session is for those who are competent in the areas but wish to be updated

Time	Lecture Title	Facilitator
09.10 - 09.15	Introduction	Dr Rita Lawlor Professional Development Co-ordinator for Practice Nurses (PDC)
09.15 - 09.40	History and Aims of Immunisation	Dr Anna Clarke, Consultant in Public Health Medicine
09.40 - 10.00	Immunity and how vaccines work	Dr Helena Murray, Specialist in Public Health Medicine
10.00 – 10.30	Vaccine preventable diseases	Dr Kevin Connolly, Chairperson National Immunisations Advisory Committee (NIAC)
10.30 -11.00	COFFEE
11.00 -11.20	Consent issues	Dr Helena Murray, Specialist in Public Health Medicine .
11.20 – 11.50	Vaccine administration	Breda Culhane, Clinical Nurse Specialist Practice Nursing
11.50 – 12.10	Storage and Handling	Cliona Kiersey, Chief Pharmacist
12.10 – 12.30	Essential Forms for Immunisations	Frances Heaney, Primary Care Manager
12.30 – 12.45	Question and Answer session	All
12.45 – 13.45	LUNCH
Additional participants will join the next session.
13.45 – 14.05	Current Immunisation schedule and possible future changes	Dr Brenda Corcoran, Consultant in Public Health Medicine
14.05 – 14.30	Deviations- late entrants etc.	Dr Kevin Connolly
14.30– 14.50	Adverse events following immunisation	Dr Anna Clarke
14.50 – 15.05	Vaccination Hesitancy	Dr Brenda Corcoran
15.05 – 15.30	Medication Protocol update	Ms Patricia Mc Quillan, PDC for Practice Nurses
15.30 – 16.00	Question and answer session	All
16.00 – 16.15	Evaluation & Close	Rhonda Forsythe, PDC for Practice Nurses

As stated the second half of this day is also relevant to experienced practitioners if they wish to attend. Accreditation 6 CEU's for full day, 3 CEU's for afternoon only

NB: Access to the venue is best achieved by Luas or bus. There are no parking facilities for participants at Dr Steevens Hospital