

Here are the projects that received Development Funding in 2018:

Agency	Project Title
Irish College of General Practitioners	Development of a Clinical Competency Examination Online Preparatory Course
Irish College of General Practitioners	Curriculum-in-Action; developing a set of entrustable professional activities for General Practice training in Ireland
Intern Network Executive	Intern Hub Phase 2: Improving and expanding the intern induction hub to support intern education and training beyond induction
NUI Galway School of Medicine	Implementing an Active Bystander Intervention to reduce bullying and harassment experienced by interns in an Irish Healthcare Setting.
NUI Galway School of Medicine	LGBTI in the new intern curriculum- development of a workshop for Irish interns
College of Psychiatrists of Ireland	Achieving competency in key skills: Developing a pilot simulation-based education programme for non-consultant hospital doctors (NCHDs) in psychiatry
Faculty of Radiologists	Local Provision of Multi-Source Feedback for Radiology Trainees.
Faculty of Radiologists	Reducing reported incidence of Bullying in the Workplace across the Faculty of Radiologists
Royal College of Physicians of Ireland	Point of Care Ultrasound Simulation Course for HST GIM Trainees
Royal College of Physicians of Ireland	Improving postgraduate paediatrics trainees' decision-making abilities in clinical situations.
Royal College of Physicians of Ireland	Simulation training for Basic Specialist Training Paediatric Trainees
Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland	Cohesive Progression Monitoring and Track System for all 180 Core Trainees Across Emergency Medicine and Surgery
Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland	Embedding Simulation in to the Emergency Medicine Training Programme
Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland	Development of a Structured Mentoring Programme for Surgical, Emergency Medicine Radiology and Ophthalmology Trainees
Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland	Development of novel teaching modalities for core surgical trainees to improve clinical prioritisation skills and support the attainment of required generic capabilities in surgical practice
Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland	Development of a Preparing to Practice Programme for Senior Trainees & recently appointed consultants
University College Dublin Medical School	Self-care and Stress Management Resource for Interns
University of Limerick Medical School	Project Professionalism "Supporting the Good & Fixing the Bad"; Train the Trainer Faculty