

Here are the projects that received Development Funding in 2019:

Agency	Project Title
NUI Galway School of Medicine	A Review of Intern Posts-Rotations
Dublin North East intern network	High fidelity simulation based teaching in the DNE intern network
Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland	Modernisation of the intern year – a comprehensive review of intern posts
NUI Galway School of Medicine	The ‘Winner’ fellow project
Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland	The ALTMD Programme- Teaching Lifestyle Medicine to Interns for their own benefit
University Hospital Limerick	‘Know, Be, Do’; the Modernization of the Intern Curriculum-stage 2: Dissemination and feedback of the ‘Be’ pillar of the framework
University College Cork School of Medicine	Interns Matter – The evaluation of clinical learning environments in an Irish Intern Network.
College of Anaesthesiologists Ireland	Development of a new course for Specialist Anaesthesiology Trainees on transporting critically ill patients
College of Psychiatrists Ireland	Training e-portfolio for psychiatry trainees
College of Psychiatrists Ireland	Reflective practice in Psychiatry training
Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland	Lean Healthcare Yellow Belt (Project Based) for SpR’s
Irish College of General Practitioners	Using implementation science to progress Entrustable Professional Activities for GP training
Royal College of Physicians Ireland	Safer prescribing, antibiotics and ethics course
Royal College of Physicians Ireland	Virtual delivery of HST Leadership programme
Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland	Active Bystander Training funding application
Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland	Specialist Training Registrar Boot-camp
Irish College Of Ophthalmologists	Managing the Most Common Complication in Cataract Surgery
Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland	Conflict management for radiologists.
NUI Galway School of Medicine	Modernising Intern Training: Teaching interns core skills using ultrasound to advance their preparedness for practice and improve patient safety.