The consultation fee of €55.00 is only payable where the consultation is in person.

The fees above are composite fees and no other claims or fees (including those under the General Medical Services Scheme) apply in respect of services provided under this scheme.

STC forms should be fully completed as third party verification is required for all claims. These forms and records should be available for inspection/audit, if required. The forms containing third party verification should also be preserved for a period of no less than six years.

The Scheme commencement date is 14th September 2022 and claims cannot be accepted for services provided prior to the commencement date.

If you have any queries in relation to the above please contact pcrs.doctorsqueries@hse.ie.

Yours faithfully,
