AGE RESTRICTIONS IN RELATION TO APPLICATIONS

"Age restriction shall only apply to a candidate where he/she is not classified as a new entrant (within the meaning of the Public Service Superannuation (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act, 2004). A candidate who is not classified as a new entrant must be under 65 years of age on the first day of the month in which the latest date for receiving completed application forms for the office occurs."

Revised wording for health requirements

For every qualification for an office in relation to which the Minister for Health and Children is the appropriate Minister the section entitled "Health" shall be replaced with the following:

HEALTH

"A candidate for and any person holding the office must be fully competent and capable of undertaking the duties attached to the office and be in a state of health such as would indicate a reasonable prospect of ability to render regular and efficient service."

PARTICULARS OF OFFICE

In relation to pension arrangements and retirement age please use the following in the Particulars of Office for health board posts.

PENSION ARRANGEMENTS AND RETIREMENT AGE

For existing Public Servants (i.e. those who have entered the public service on or before the 31st March 2004), retirement is compulsory on reaching the age of 65 years.

However, candidates should note that changes have been made in the superannuation provisions and retirement ages for public servants who take up duty with effect from 1" of April 2004.

In this context new entrants, within the meaning of the Public Service Superannuation (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act, 2004, to the public service should note:

- the minimum pension age has been increased to 65 for most new entrants to the public service;
- this includes new entrant civil servants, teachers, staff in local government, the health service and non-commercial State Sponsored bodies;
- the compulsory retirement age of 65 has been removed enabling staff to remain longer in work should they wish, subject to suitability and health requirements
- Pension benefits for new entrants will accrue on a standard basis (i.e. one year's credit for one year's service up to a maximum of 40 years' service) while normal abatement of pension provision will apply to all public sector posts

PARTICULARS OF OFFICE

1. The person appointed will hold appointment under Part II of the Health Act, 1970 on such terms and conditions and shall perform such duties as the Chief Executive Officer from time to time determines subject to any directions of the Minister for Health and Children. A statement showing the duties already assigned is attached.

As this post is one of those designated under the Protection of Persons Reporting Child Abuse Act, 1998, appointment to this post appoints one as a designated officer in accordance with Section 2 of the Act. You will remain a designated officer for the duration of your appointment to your current post or for the duration of your appointment to such other post as is included in the categories specified in the Ministerial Direction. Such officer will on receiving a report on child abuse formally notify the Senior Social Worker or designated officer

- 2. The post is wholetime, permanent, pensionable and Category (appropriate category) save that the Officer:-
 - (a) may engage in private practice in accordance with the terms of his/her contract.
 - (b) may if offered a teaching appointment in his/her specialty by the Governing Body of the Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland undertake the duties of such appointment subject to the limitations specified at Paragraph (state paragraph) of the duties.

3. SUPERANNUATION CONTRIBUTIONS:

- (a) With effect from 6th April, 1995:
 - (i) Persons who become pensionable officers of a health board, who are liable to pay the Class A rate of PRSI contribution will be required in respect of their superannuation to contribute to the health board at the rate of 1.5% of their pensionable remuneration plus 3.5% of net pensionable remuneration (i.e. pensionable remuneration less twice the annual rate of social insurance old age contributory pension payable at the maximum rate to a person with no adult dependant or qualified children).
 - (ii) persons who become pensionable officers of a health board who are liable to pay the Class D rate of PRS contribution will be required, in respect of their superannuation, to contribute to the health board at the rate of 5% of their pensionable remuneration.

(b) All persons who become pensionable officers of a health board, are required, in respect of the Local Government (Spouses and Childrens Contributory Pension) Scheme, 1986, to contribute to the health board at the rate of 1.5% of their pensionable remuneration in accordance with the terms of the Scheme.

4. PROBATION

The person appointed shall hold office for a probationary period of twelve months which the Chief Executive Officer may, at his/her discretion, extend unless he/she is already the holder of a permanent appointment of Consultant in the State.

5. TRAVELLING EXPENSES

Travelling and subsistence expenses necessarily incurred in the course of a consultant's duties shall be met on the basis applicable to persons of appropriate senior status in the public sector. Consultants holding joint appointments or appointments involving a commitment at more than one location will be reimbursed expenses in respect of travel between locations specified in the schedule which are agreed with the employing authority or authorities.
