

DIGNITY AT WORK SUPPORT CONTACT PERSONS Cork

- Support Contact Persons are a key confidential support if you think you may be experiencing bullying, harassment or sexual harassment in the workplace or if you have a complaint of same made against you.
- Regardless of your work location/role in Cork, you can select any of the names from the Support Contact Person's list on the next page to schedule a face to face meeting or an over the phone session.
Note: The most up to date Covid guidance in regards to face to face meetings will always apply.
- The role of the Support Contact Person is to support you in getting a better understanding of the Dignity at Work Policy and the related policy options from which you can choose to address a matter.
- The Support Contact Person will listen in confidence without judgement to your experience.
-  It is not the role of the Support Contact Persons to act on your behalf or tell you what to do; however they are skilled at giving relevant policy information, listening carefully and compassionately to your experience and asking helpful questions to allow you decide how best to resolve your issue.
- If you are experiencing difficulty contacting a Support Contact Person from the list, you can then email annep.power@hse.ie and every effort will be made to confidentially link you up with one of the Support Contact Persons as soon as possible.
- Further information on the role of the Support Contact Person can be found in the HSE Dignity at Work Policy available from your line manager or can be viewed on the Human Resource Policy Section on the HSE Intranet.
